

Free Public Event:

"What are the Consequences for Canada? NATO at 75, the Ukraine War, Russia, China and the Middle East"

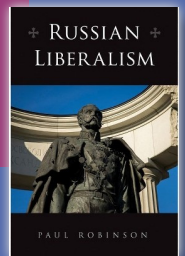

Tuesday, July 23 James J. Brown Auditorium
7:00-8:30 P.M. Waterloo Main Public Library
35 Albert St, Waterloo, ON

Speaker: Dr. Paul Robinson

Professor of Public and International Affairs at the University of Ottawa

New Book "Russian Liberalism" Blog: IRRUSSIANALITY

Speaker: Tamara Lorincz

PhD Candidate at the Balsillie School of International Affairs at Wilfrid Laurier University

The speakers will discuss the outcomes of NATO's 75th anniversary summit in Washington D.C. for the war in Ukraine, Russia, China and the Indo-Pacific region and the Middle East. NATO's Washington Summit Declaration has serious, far-reaching consequences for Canada and the world.

Dr. Robinson will also talk about his new book "Russian Liberalism." Join the conversation. All welcome. Organized by the Canadian Foreign Policy Institute, the Canadian Voice of Women for Peace and WILPF-Canada.

For more information, please visit: wilpfcanda.ca